Five persons were hurt in weekend traffic mishaps in and near the Quad-Cities area. Among the injured was a woman whose auto went out of control and hit a house and another whose car hit a hole and overturned on Poag road.

Charges of reckless driving and operating an auto without a driver's license were placed against Lois Morgan, 24, of Post Office Box 172, Granite City, who was injured slightly about 8:30 p.m. Saturday when the auto she was driving crashed into the home of E. W. Miller at 1560 Johnson road.

The motorist, who lost control of her auto while driving around a curve in the east, drove across the lawn at the home of A. E. Boyer, 1536 Johnson road, and into the west side of the Miller's frame home. She was freed on $122 cash bail for a hearing next Saturday. Police said no other auto was involved.

Mrs. Ann Gavilsky, 45, of 1313 Iowa street, Madison, suffered a laceration on her left knee last night when the car she was driving hit a hole in the pavement on Poag road between Highways 111 and 159 near Hartford and overtook a car.

Mrs. Gavilsky was returning home from Edwardsville with a 12-year-old son, 8 and a 10-year-old daughter, when the accident occurred. She was taken to St. Elizabeth Hospital where the wound was sutured. Her sons were not injured.

Police said she was riding in an auto driven by her husband, Harvey Hurst, 64, who was traveling west on Highway 159 and collided with an auto operated south on Iowa street by a 1955 Chevrolet, 65, of 2832 Iowa street.

A nine-year-old girl was injured Sunday night at 2:45 p.m. Thursday when she was riding the side of a moving auto on the street between a Walgreen store and a school.

Drive On Venice Building Repairs; Study Pollution

A crackdown on Venice buildings ordered repaired or razed last fall was authorized Friday night by the Venice city council's first meeting of 1960-61. Appointments for the new fiscal year are to be considered at a later meeting.

The council instructed City Attorney Harry Hartman to proceed with action in the circuit court against all structures listed by the council last year and still not repaired. Action was taken by some property owners, but many buildings remain. Building Inspector Arlie Abbott reported, advised of a query from the state Sanitary Water Board, the council voted to have its city proceeding on Venetian, with one or more other cities or with a group of cities.

The study will show how much a pollution treatment survey would cost, and will result in a recommendation for consideration by the council. The action was suggested by Mayor John E. Leach, who said it is necessary to show continuing progress toward ending river pollution.

The council authorized temporary stop signs on Second street to allow Kerr street traffic to proceed during the rerouting resulting from widening work scheduled to start on Main street this week.

Payments approved included $586 to Illinois Terminal Railroad for the removal and treatment of timbers in the McKinney Bridge renovation program; $1,000 to the Sheppard firm for engineering services related to Broadway improvements; and $1,000 to Sheppard for inspection of the Broadway work.

A third installation of $30,443 was paid to the General Contracting Co. for Broadway drainage line installation and paving. Earlier payments totaled $24,631 and the contract is for $21,218.

Fourth Ward Alderman Oscar Kinney reported that the potholes being thrown out of cars along the county road, and Fourth Ward Alderman William Griggs said dogs are forming packs in North Venice. Police officers are working with the humane officer in eliminating the conditions.

Safe Cracking, Holdup In Area During Weekend

Active thieves worked in the Quad-City area over the weekend, "peeling" a safe to steal $1718 at the Seven-Up Bottling Co. plant in Madison, staging a $25 stickup at the J&M Confectionery at 1801 Edison avenue, Granite City, and looting the Heatherly home, 1800 Second street, Madison, taking guns, jewelry and electrical appliances.

The bottling company, 204 State street, was entered between 12:45 and 6:25 a.m. Saturday through a garage window at the rear of the building, and the safe crackers apparently worked at leisure in knocking the handle and combination off the 2 1/2-foot safe and then "peeling" the door by a lone armed bandit, who fled on foot, held up the metal cover, and about 6:15 p.m. Sunday at the Venice City confectionery, taking $25 one-dollar bills from the register.

The bottling firm safe crackers, after opening the safe, helped themselves to $450 in currency, $22 in coins and $140 in checks. Left at the scene were a new 23-inch crowbar, a new nine-inch steel chisel and a new 19-inch screwdriver, which were found near the safe. Police believe the tools were obtained especially for the safe job. Outstanding between the plant and the old 200 Club building, an 11-inch ballpeen hammer was found.

Also missing from the safe are a brown money bag and 11 black zipper bags about 5x12 inches in size.

Seven permits, with a total value of $7350, were issued for home improvements.

150 Take Part In Initial Madison Disaster Alert

More than 150 units of the Madison civil defense and disaster corps participated Saturday in the first full-scale Madison natural disaster drill. E. A. Friedman, disaster chairman, conducted the test and Harry R. Johnson, CD director, was in charge of the control room in the basement of the Madison recreation center.

While demonstrating that the staff could mobilize quickly to restore the city to normal after a disaster, the alert also was intended to determine any deficiencies in the present state of preparedness. Friedman explained. Additional control room and radio equipment, including more "walkie-talkie" units, appear to be needed, along with more vehicles. It was learned during the drill.

About 150 persons participated, with the efforts concentrated on a simulated tornado that "destroyed" the Garische Homes project and "unroofed" the Greiner Homes. Eight persons designated as casualties were taken by ambulance to temporary medical facilities directed by Mrs. Bernice Gushier at the recreation center, where a canteen also was operated. Traffic officers were on duty drill the drill.

Units taking part included Madison police and firemen, auxiliary police, air raid wardens, communications personnel, radio operators, first-aid teams, the Junior Red Cross, Boy Scouts and Civil Air Patrol cadets. Radioactively monitoring units also held a practice session Saturday afternoon.

An emergency unit of four persons from St. Elizabeth Hospital participated. Sixteen CAP members led by Major Al Lisch assisted in communications and traffic and spectator control, later holding a barbecue and social evening at the home of the commander, William Fiel, 2445 Benton street.

GC Program 'Workable' For Housing Elderly

City Notified Of Plan
Approval By Housing,
Home Finance Agency

Another step toward development of a 100-unit housing project for the elderly in Granite City is now authorized by the Housing and Home Finance Agency approved a "workable program" for Granite City.

With approval by the HMFHA, the Granite City Housing Authority is now authorized to submit its plans for the project to the federal agency, and a cost estimate will be available within two weeks. The 100-unit housing bond has not yet announced a location for the project, but is considering several sites including one within a few blocks of Kirkpatrick Homes.

The present 451-apartment Kirkpatrick Homes has a shortage of one-bedroom units suitable for occupancy by the elderly and also has a long waiting list of applicants. A federal grant of $20,000 recently was awarded the authority for surveys, appraisals and the hiring of architects.

Cost Figures Soon

David Morgan, executive director of the housing authority, said architects are preparing cost estimates and preliminary plans and the approval received Friday was required before plans could be submitted to proceed with the project. "We should be able to submit cost figures within a week or two," he added.

The "workable program" prerequisite for federal assistance in the form of loans and grants, includes steps taken by a municipality to eliminate and prevent slums and blight.

Zoning A Factor

In order to qualify, the city was required to submit copies of ordinances listing minimum building standards, plumbing and electrical codes, zoning and subdivision controls and provisions for enforcement.

Copies of the cities compliance with a week or two," he added.

Dinner To Honor Stuart For 25 Years' Service To Youth

Completing 25 years as advisory board chairman and "dad" of the Granite City Chapter, Order of DeMolay, within the past year, James Stuart, 3711 Namolay, will be honored at a testimonial dinner Thursday for "long, devoted and effective service to youth of the community."

Known affectionately as "Uncle Jimmy" to over 3000 Quad-City men and youths who have "come under the direct influence of his leadership, inspiration and guidance," Stuart will be honored at a father-and-son banquet at 6:30 p.m. Thursday at the Y.M.C.A. The testimonial dinner, Thursday for "long, devoted and effective service to youth of the community," will be master of ceremonies. Tickets are sale at the "Y" and Graham's Book store.

In announcing plans for the dinner, local DeMolay Legionnaires cited "dedicated and unselfish service to youth" in such fields as character-building, athletics, social programs and ritual work.

Sales Increase 21% At American Steel
In the six months ending March 31, American Steel Foundries sales increased 21% and earnings per share 44% over the same period last year, despite the fact that ordering of freight cars was not up to expectations, President Joseph Lanterman announced at a luncheon meeting of financial analysts in Boston Thursday.

The anticipated increase in freight car orders in the last six months of the company's fiscal year prompted Lanterman to predict that earnings will increase in the present quarter ending June 30.

"Freight cars continue to be scrapped at the rate of approximately 7000 a month," he said. "Additional cars are needed to meet the current and future demands on our railroads."

The company's earnings for the quarter ending March 31 amounted to $2,019,012 or 68 cents per share as compared to $1,542,492 or 53 cents per share in the preceding quarter ending Dec. 31, 1959.

Rehmeier Explains Wheat Exemption

Several factors affecting wheat producers who have wheat allotments of less than 15 acres for 1960 were called to the attention of farmers today by Edwin C. Rehmeier, chairman of the County Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Committee.

The law that authorizes marketing quotas provides that in commercial wheat-producing states as much as 15 acres of wheat may be produced on any farm without being subject to marketing quota penalties. This provision applies to farms with no wheat allotments as well as to farms with wheat acreage allotments of less than 15 acres.

However, wheat on such farms is subject to marketing quota penalties when more than 15 acres of wheat are produced. When the 15-acre limitation is exceeded, the excess bushels of wheat is determined by multiplying the normal yield for the farm by the number of acres of wheat above the farm allotment.

Rehmeier cited the following as examples: A farmer with a wheat allotment of 12 acres for 1960 produces 20 acres of wheat. The difference between the allotment and the wheat acreage—eight acres—would be considered excess acres. The eight acres excess would be used in determining the amount of wheat subject to the marketing quota penalty. In the event a farm with no allotment has more than 15 acres of wheat, the entire acreage would be considered in excess and subject to marketing quota penalty. However, if the acreage over 15 is disposed of, the wheat would not be subject to marketing quotas.

Farmers who have applied for use on the farm are not subject to marketing quota penalties unless they produce more than 20 acres. The deadline for adjustment of wheat acreage into compliance with the farm wheat allotment is May 25 in Madison County.

1,331,000 War Vets Living In Illinois

The latest survey made by the Veterans Administration shows there are 1,331,000 war veterans now living in Illinois, according to Robert M. Fitzgerald, acting manager of VA's Regional Office in Chicago. Their average age is 61.3 years.

Korean veterans' average age is 30.1 years. Illinois also has 187,000 veterans of world war I, averaging 65.7 years in age. Five and a half percent are Spanish American War, Indian Wars and earlier ranks make up an average 82.2 years old.

Mercers, Sacred Heart Fatten Up Off Opposition's Pitching, Score Third Straight Victories Sunday

Undisputed possession of first place in both the Blue and Red divisions of the Southwest Illinois Inter-City Baseball League belongs to Granite City teams today.

Mercer Funeral Home topped its Blue division margin to two full games, unleashing a 22-hit attack to smother McManis of Collinsville 18-4 at Wilson Park Sunday, while Sacred Heart won 10-3 at Maryville as Bob Page gained his third straight win without a defeat.

In Sunday's other contests White City rolled over McManis of East St. Louis 9-4, Darryl Ottwell spun a two-hitter as Carpenter handed Troy its third straight loss 8-1, and State Savings of East St. Louis got a fine mound performance from Phillie spring training returnee Cliff Rodes to dump Highland 5-1.

Sacred Heart exploded for seven runs in the second inning. Four crossed the plate on a three-run homer by Catcher Clayton Harrison and a solo round-tripper by Monroe Wor-

The one big inning was all Page needed. He gave up five hits, all of them singles, struck out 13 and allowed only one earned run, that in the third inning.

Maryville got two in the second when Umpire Al Miller and Harrison hooked up in a comic ballet behind the plate on a Page pitch which got way from the Heart catcher and rolled to the screen.

One runner scored as Miller and Harrison tried to slide-step each other, and the second crossed when Harrison's throw back to the plate hit the umpire in the back.

Don Lucas worked 1½ innings for Maryville, gave up eight runs and was charged with the loss. Augie Jacobs gave up the Heart's final two markers in the fourth, but pitched shutout ball the rest of the way.

Page and Dulan Maxwell, playing his first game at shortstop after recovering from a leg injury, each had three hits. The Hearts totaled 17.

9 Extra-Base Hits

Mercers made McManis hurt as they look like batting practice pitchers in the Wilson Park game. Spliced into the 22-hit total, highest by any team in the league this season, were doubles by John Modrusic, Don Crabtree and Charles Johannmeier, tri-ple by winning Pitcher Andy Angeloff, Johannmeier, Roger Wells and Bill Dink, and a three-run homer by Rich Branding in the seventh.

The squad scored in every inning but the fifth, and got to Collinsville ace Bob Kovacic for nine hits and eight runs in four innings. Kovacic, the loser, was replaced by Ray Rosenkranz in the fifth, who gave way to Walter Rosenkranz in the ninth.

Angeloff went six innings, to pick up his second win of the year with Co-Manager Dick Fortell mopping up. Angeloff gave up eight hits, and Fortell took Branding had a field day with four hits in five trips, good for six RBIs. Johannmeier's triple was a bases-loaded sock in the fourth, and he ended the day with five runs driven in. Modrusic and Crabtree both went

Review Could Show Best Procedures For County Government's Buying, Bids

The county's decision to boost its competitive bid limit from $200 to $500 follows a trial period in which it was a rule to obtain bids on all purchases over $200.

While there may be conveniences in making purchases directly, additional study of the move seems to be in order. In committee on the change to $500, a county official told the Press-Record that in some cases, an item is available from only one source. While this may be true, the experience of other taxing bodies indicates that most products are competitive, bids are obtainable and the overall cost can be reduced, often substantially.

Along with the dividing line between direct buying and bids, other matters also may need study. Some county board members report that committees are given wide discretionary power, and that purchases from some non-tax funds are not considered subject to any requirement for competitive bids. But some believe that one major purchase almost led to a board dispute prior to the primary election, but the issue was dropped after the responsible committee supported the action of the elected officials who had authorized it.

With taxpayers showing growing interest in the conduct of their government, a general tightening-up, including a review of the county's buying and bid procedures, would seem to be a wise move.

Formula For Every Skill Offered By Array Of Do-It-Yourself Books

While a forward-looking attitude and a spirit of "never say die" are regarded as commendable, most people seem to realize that some things are beyond their reach. No one can claim to be a professional. But some book publishers apparently are not yet convinced of that fact.

The "do-it-yourself" fad, accelerated by increases in leisure time, has prompted some firms to urge readers to "pursue an interest in a project. Develop a hobby for profit and pleasure!" Even without the exclamation points, it is clear they have big plans for the book buyers.

"Anyone Can Grow Roses," one book title announces confidently. "How to Double the Living Space in Your Home" and "How to Outsell the Born Salesman" outline ambitious undertakings, but other volumes restore the equilibrium by informing the reader that "You Must Relax" and that he can "Conquer Your Allergy" and get "Help For Your Headaches." Financial headaches pose no problem, what with the availability of such books as "Making Money in Investments" and "How to Win Prize Contests." There is even "Gold in Your Attic."

It would seem there is no limit to the magic that can be created by the lure of the nearest bookstore. But "What to Say and How to Say It For All Occasions" is one book we wouldn't have to consult if we happened to encounter one or two of the available books of our home, such as "How to Build and Race Hot Rods" or "How to Be a Successful Widow."

There are people in the world who judge everything by its bankroll.

Road, Parking Surfaces Are Increasing Utilization Of Venice Park Facilities

Construction of a roadway around the entire circumference of Les Park seven years ago has had the anticipated effect of increasing usage of the more distant sections of the spacious park. With many persons using barbecue pits and other facilities, the Venice park board has approved plans to create additional vehicle parking areas on the western side of the park.

Installation of flower gardens, children's rides and tennis courts in past years has helped the park district keep pace with recreational facilities in other communities. The emphasis on adequate roads and parking surfaces is making possible fuller utilization of the services and equipment offered by the Venice park.

Taxes Withheld Seem Painless Compared To Local Bills But Are Much Larger

Now that tax extensions have been completed and bills are being prepared for Quad-City property owners, it appears that Madison county residents will be paying about $30,000,000 this year for the operation of their local level of government.

The amount may shock some people, but it is far larger tax bill is being met with only a slight impact on the average person. This is because it is paid "painlessly" in the form of withholding taxes. Based on the $79,800,000 federal budget set up for the next fiscal year, Madison county's share of the cost will be $113,798,000. The typical family unit of four will pay $2260, and Illinois' share will amount to $5,770,000, since 7.23% of all federal revenue comes from this state.

As evidenced by the statistics, federal spending is huge when compared to local governmental expenditures. The major category in the budget is national defense, and a vast network of departments, agencies and commands has been created to carry out the countless functions undertaken by the government. Many taxpayers know that the public debt is $290,000,000,000. Few are aware that federal commitments for future spending in civil works projects, highways and housing, combined with unexpended balances for defense and other accumulated obligations, total an additional $450,000,000,000.

To say that government has become a big business would be the understatement of the year. It is the people's prerogative to determine how much the government should do for them and how much the services should cost. But it seems unfortunate that so many are unaware of the burden being carried, and untroubled due to the "painlessness" of their paying. It has always seemed to us that this is one of the advantages of local tax procedures. The bill goes to the recipient sufficiently to keep him alert to the trends in municipal services and costs.

There has been talk of a movement toward a state income tax. Judging by the procedure followed on the sales tax, it is conceivable that state legislators backing an income tax would seek support by granting cities the right to follow with similar laws. But in removing some of the jarring effect of taxation, would the lawmakers be encouraging even less interest than at present in the conduct of local and state government?

Venice Township Relief Costs Down In April

Relief costs for Venice township dropped to the lowest total of the last year and were the lowest for April since 1957, Town Supervisor Arthur W. Moore reported today.

Last month, 478 people in 152 families received $10,704 in relief. Only last August's total of $14,974 and in April 1958 of $13,896, each being the top month of the year.

Fewer fuel needs during the last month accounted for most of the $607 drop in relief costs from the March figures. Other factors, such as fewer medical bills and less unemployment, also were noted.

The general trend for this calendar year points to overall lower costs in general assistance. For the first four months, $46,340 has been spent on 1548 persons in 611 families compared to $41,866 in the same period last year.

Political Medicine Is Bad Medicine BAD FOR YOU .... BAD FOR THE NATION!

JUST WHAT IS POLITICAL MEDICINE?

Political medicine is the type of medicine this country could expect if a measure now before Congress were made law. This measure is known as the Forand Bill. If enacted, it would remove Social Security from the jurisdiction of the Federal Government. It would mean no federal control, high costs and no federal insurance. Further, it would establish a system of socialized medicine for a large segment of the population. American rejected socialized medicine overwhelmingly in 1949. But here it is again—this time under a different label.

WHAT WOULD THE FORAND BILL DO

It would permit the Federal Government to buy, with an unpredictably huge quantity of your tax dollars, a limited amount of hospital, surgical and nursing care. Further, it would force some 18 million people eligible for Social Security retirement and survivorship payments.

WHO WOULD RUN THE PROGRAM AND RULE ON WHAT SORT OF TREATMENT MUST BE PROVIDED?

The Federal Government, through a government employee.

WHAT WOULD ALL OF THIS COST?

About $2 billion a year—for the first and second years of operation. The cost would be about $2 billion a year, as they did in Great Britain.

WHO WOULD PAY THE BILL FOR FORAND LEGISLATION?

You would—and so would everyone else who pays Social Security taxes. These taxes are already scheduled to reach 9% of payroll in the years ahead. This means you will eventually be paying a tax of $216 on an income of $4800 a year, with your employer also paying $216. The Forand Bill would cut your take-home pay even more, by further increasing the rate of Social Security taxes. In Italy, the cost of Social Security is now 30 cents out of every payroll dollar.

IS THE FORAND BILL NECESSARY?

No. Health insurance has made startling gains in the past 20 years. During that period, the number of persons covered has gone from 12 million to 123 million. It is estimated that 60% of the aged, meeting and wanting health insurance, will have it this year; 75% by 1967; and 90% by 1970. Further, voluntary effort at the community level is rapidly developing and expanding special facilities for the health care of the aged. The Forand Bill proposes a PERMANENT governmental scheme as the answer to a TEMPORARY problem.

WOULD THE FORAND BILL HELP THE INDIGENT AGED WITH THE LOWEST INCOMES?

No. Despite its enormous cost, the Forand Bill would not help the indigent, for the vast majority of indigents are not eligible for Social Security retirement and survivorship benefits. The indigent receives most of their medical care through welfare programs. Aside from the help they get from private, fraternal and religious organizations, the indigent of all ages now receive more than $4 billion annually in Federal and state aid for medical and other expenses.

WOULD THE FORAND BILL MEAN BETTER HEALTH CARE FOR THE AGED PERSONS COVERED?

No. It would mean poorer, not better, health care for these people. The medical needs of the aged vary widely and can be met only on an individual basis. The care of the aged cannot be handled in Washington, D.C. It must be tailored in each community to fit the need.

HOW WOULD THE FORAND BILL AFFECT YOUR RELATIONSHIP WITH YOUR FAMILY PHYSICIAN?

Unfavorably. You, as a patient, would have to choose between a hospital or physician under contract with the Federal Government if you were eligible for treatment under the Forand Bill. Your doctor would be forced to conform to administrative regulations which could hamper him from prescribing the treatment which, in his professional opinion, YOU needed.

HOW WOULD THE VAST MAJORITY OF AMERICANS—THOSE WHO AREN'T RECEIVING SOCIAL SECURITY PAYMENTS— BE AFFECTED BY PASSAGE OF THE FORAND BILL?

They would soon find dangerous overcrowding in their local hospitals, with long waits for admission. The record of similar legislation in other countries makes it plain that even if hospitals, without medical need, inevitably occurs. The result would be all ages within our communities.

IF THE FORAND BILL BECAME LAW, WOULD THIS MEAN COMPLETELY SOCIALIZED MEDICINE IN THE UNITED STATES?

Yes—it would just be a matter of time. Some of the Bill's supporters are determined to socialize medicine across the board. Their next step would be to lower the age of eligibility and broaden the field of coverage. They would continue, year after year, until every American was under a rigid Federal system of compulsory, socialized medicine.

'Uphill' Drain Causes Problem On Saratoga

An "uphill" drain is causing the 2900 block of Saratoga avenue to be covered with a foot of water during light rains, the Press-Record was told Friday by Mrs. Joseph Wier, 2617 Saratoga avenue.

She said even small showers such as those last Thursday and on Friday morning flood the street, "and we're unable to use our front walks unless we wear hip boots."

The street, located in the Sixth addition to Glenview subdivision, contains drainage lines, but Mrs. Wier said no one will believe that she has to sweep water uphill to the drain opening in order to get the water away from her home.

"Sometimes the water almost reaches the front door. Sometimes it goes away in a half hour and sometimes it takes almost all afternoon for it to run off," she related. Mrs. Wier said she has pointed the problem out to the subdividers, the superintendent of streets and other city officials.

A new trunk line to serve the expanding subdivision is scheduled to be installed by July or August by the East Side Level & Sanitary District. It was reported during last Monday night's city council meeting, "but even with a new trunk line I doubt if water will drain off if it has to run uphill."

Circuit Judge Harold Clark on April 20 continued the case to permit Daly, unsuccessful candidate for state's attorney, to file an amended complaint listing three defendants in addition to the first two, McGee and the Alton collector. The latest amendment was on a petition by William Hale, president of the Granite City Civic League, and Roger Elble of Wood River.

FICTION or FACT?

Ever hear someone brag about the "bargain" he got? ... Was this bargain fiction or fact? ... Many a "bargain" started out with a padded price that did not reflect the true value of the merchandise. When the "bargain" sale was made, did the buyer really get the bottom price, or could someone else have bought it cheaper? ... could the buyer have gotten a lower price, if he had held out longer?

Johnson Music quotes only a fair price on every instrument they sell ... and they quote the same price to all. This one-price-to-all policy assures you equitable treatment. You KNOW that you have gotten your instrument for exactly the same amount anyone else would have paid. Assure yourself of real value ... buy — and save! ## U. S. Bonds Are Secure Investment, Agent Says

U. S. Government bonds have been buried, burned, eaten, shredded, lost and destroyed in a multitude of ways and yet their owners or co-owners always receive replacements, Harry Wood, Treasury Department agent in charge of the sale of the bonds in this area, told members of the Noctuid Optimist Club Thursday.

Swift replacement of the bonds is important, he said, since they are the safest investment which can be made by the private citizen and are also necessary in providing the government with the necessary funds for operation.

Reassured of their reliability, Wood continued, a $100,000 per year purchase limit by any one individual was placed on the bonds. But individuals are daily cashing in the bonds, which have a maximum life of 30 years, and it is imperative that the government make corresponding sales each year to control the national debt to some degree, the treasury agent pointed out.

He told his audience that the national debt currently stands at some 286 billions of dollars. "It's difficult to imagine how much that figure amounts to," Wood said, "in fact it is beyond human comprehension. If $1000 were piled 500 feet deep on the Granite City area you still wouldn't have touched the figure."

1500 Requests Daily
The Treasury Department daily receives some 1500 requests for replacement from persons whose savings bonds have been lost, damaged or destroyed.

Wood said, the department employs two persons who are experts in the field of reconstructing damaged and mutilated bonds, but in some instances the bonds have been lost for all time and the details of how they were lost are not unusual to say the least, Wood continued.

For instance, there was the case of a Navy man at the address of Corregidor in May 1942 who saw the clock coming down and converted $750 in cash into government bonds two days before the stronghold was overrun by the Japanese.

The sailor spent three years in Japanese prison camp, then came home and collected. Another instance of bonds lost during world war II was recalled by Wood when he said an American soldier was forced to leave his bonds behind in a foxhole during the "Battle of the Bulge" in Germany.

His position was overrun by the German Third Panzer Division and when the question was put to him: "Did you make inquiry as to who the present holder of your bonds is?" he replied, "NO." His bonds were also replaced.

One of the most unusual cases of the coming wedding of Miss Rosalyn Scopette, formerly of Venice, and Dr. Howard Vernon Sanden. The ceremony will take place July 1 at Central Presbyterian church in St. Louis.

The bride-to-be is a daughter of Dr. Joseph A. Scopette of Kirkwood, Mo., and Mrs. Pauline Scopette of Clayton, St. Louis. She is a graduate of Barnes Hospital School of Nursing and is currently an airline stewardess. Wood said she met him in San Francisco and will return to St. Louis later this month.

Dr. Sanden is the son of Lt. Col. Milton V. Sanden, a dentist of San Pedro, Calif., and Mrs. Alida B. Sanden of Evanston, Ill. He was graduated from Washington and Lee University in Lexington Va., and Washington University in St. Louis.

For three years he has been on the staff of St. Louis Children's Hospital.

Political Precincts
Discussed By Group
The group discussed the duties of precinct leaders, their activities in election time and year-round programs.

Emergency Treatment
Kent Bowditch, 5, son of Mr. and Mrs. Calvin Bowditch, 302 Third street, Venice and Mrs. Lillian Profit, 37, of 2607A Grand avenue, were treated at St. Elizabeth's Hospital last week for cuts on their right hands they suffered in separate mishaps.

Buried With Relative
Seems they had buried the body of the man, who, although he was in the inside pocket of his best blue suit, he supported. Wood said the department let her uncle rest in peace and replaced the bonds.

The bonds are secure in other ways, the agent said. Professional criminals rarely steal them, since cashing them without the proper thorough identification is impossible. The beneficiary of government bonds is a safer method of carrying funds on a vacation than traveler's checks.

Wood said, "I don't know that bonds are not subject to probate," Wood said, "and that owners do not have to wait until the settlement of an estate to cash the bonds."

So far, the Treasury Department, which relies on Secret Service agents to track down bond claims, has replaced some 800,000 of them. Over 1,750,000 have been issued by the government, and the already mentioned records, with the exception of Social Security records in Baltimore, is the "biggest stack of files in the world," Wood noted.

Guests at Thursday's meeting were Charles Meyer of the Twilight Optimist Club, and Robert Belde, area right-of-way agent for the Illinois Power Co. Meyer informed club members of a recognition banquet in honor of Dakaloy advisor James E. Stuart, which will be held Thursday evening at the YMCA.

Fewer Vessels Carrying More Freight Through Canal Locks

Fewer vessels are carrying more freight this year than last, the office of the U. S. Corps of Engineers reported today. The fact was borne out by figures on Chain of Rocks canal traffic and lockages for the first four months of 1960.

Freight passing through the locks during April totaled 1,654,924 tons, bringing the 1960 total tonnage to 6,433,869, as compared to 6,101,703 for January through April of 1959.

Only 9282 vessels have been required to carry the 1960 total, while total vessels at this time last year were 9447.

Upstream traffic was more than double that downstream during April of this year, with the comparison figures 1,209,548 and 444,381 tons. Commercial tonnage totaled 1,654,479, and government tonnage 445.

A breakdown of commercial tonnage for April by products, with upstream totals listed first, follows:

Petroleum products—431,700, 104,781; grain—9800, 256,800; coal—301,500, none; cement, sand and gravel—3000, none; sulphur—70,856, 1500; miscellaneous commodities—263,137, 27,800; chemicals—40,000, 1600; and steel—69,555, 52,950.

Commercial boat traffic passing through the locks consisted of 557 towboats, 1714 barges, no small boats and no passenger boats. Eight private recreational boats used locking facilities, and government traffic included 11 towboats, 23 barges, one small craft, no construction boats and four U. S. cruisers and patrol boats.

Vessels during April totaled 2318, compared to 2359 last month. Lockages during the past month totaled 512, as compared to 584 in the same month a year ago.
